

“snap happy & nothing tacky”

gimme, gimme!

Sleek, smart, sophisticated, that is you right. Well Canon has the perfect accessory for your lifestyle. They have come up with a couple of cameras for the style hungry, and photographically challenged amongst you.

The 7.1 Megapixel Digital IXUS 75 and Digital IXUS 70 combine A-list style with cutting-edge features. Technologies such as Face Detection and Red-Eye Correction make great photography a breeze. Both have distinctive facades, sexy as an old school warhorse with all the digital whizzery to ensure you will be pumping out the pixels. Just don't tell anyone how shit hot you are or you'll be roped into take every delightful love-in wedding you never wanted to go to in the first place. Bitter us? Never!

Who the hell is...? Jackknife Lee

Is he a serial killer?

No, he's a shit hot producer turned solo artist.

Oh dear, this is going to be one of those Paul Oakenfold solo albums is it?

No, this is a slice of genre-crossing genius.

Genre-crossing? Is that like cross dressing?

Kind of, his Myspace says he's a fusion of Christian Rap, Death Metal and German pop.

Who's he remixed then?

Missy Elliot, Kasabian, New Order, Editors... that enough for you?

When's the new stuff out?

The single Making Me Money is out this month and an LP is on the way.

Better make a new folder in my itunes with the heading 'German, religious death-metal rap' then.

Green Man

17 - 19 August 2007

Brecon Beacons' favourite folk festival is back for the fourth year in a row with the likes of Gruff Rhys, Robert Plant and Joanna Newsom. If you ever needed a good reason to go check out Tom Jones's Green Grass of home, this is it baby. And you can't wrap it in a Rizla and smoke it. We tried.
